Obituary

Mrs. Mae Stamey Geouge, age 93, of Marion, passed away Saturday, February 18, 2012 at home, with her loving family at her side. A native of McDowell County, Mae was born on November 1, 1918 to the late Grover C. Stamey and Myrtle Glenn Stamey. She graduated from Marion High School in 1936 and subsequently attended Emmanuel College in Franklin Springs, GA. Her many talents included being an accomplished pianist and an excellent homemaker. Mae was a member of East Marion United Methodist Church for more than 60 years where she was very active in the United Methodist Women. She took great care in her appearance and loved an occasion to dress up. Following many years of service, she retired from the McDowell County School System as a teacher's assistant. She is preceded in death by her husband of 65 years Bryan O. Geouge, a son, Travis Geouge, and her great-grandson, Hunter Jones.

Saddened by the loss of Mrs. Geouge are two sons, William N. Geouge and his wife Joan of Statesville and Hershel B. "Ted" Geouge and his wife Jane of Monroe; two daughters, Dr. Martha G. Hill and her husband Ben of Hickory and Cynthia G. Davis and her husband Harold of Marion; ten grandchildren, Sarah Davis, Mary Katherine Ogle, Candice Hellyar, Rebecca Hill, Elizabeth Hill, Amanda Hoilman, Chris Geouge, Erich Geouge, Mark Geouge and Bryan Geouge; and seven great-grandchildren.

A graveside service will be held on Tuesday, February 21, 2012 at 10:00 a.m. at McDowell Memorial Park after which the family will gather at East Marion United Methodist Church, where a memorial service will be held at 11:00 a.m. with Rev. Bill Lovelace officiating. The family will receive friends Monday, February 20, 2012 from 6:00 p.m. until 8:00 p.m. at Westmoreland Funeral Home. Flowers are acceptable and appreciated. Those wishing to make a memorial contribution are encouraged to consider East Marion United Methodist Church at 131 First Street, Marion, NC 28752.
